

God says the way we treat people matters. He wants us to SHOW respect for others (leaders and friends) with our actions. The benefit to others is obvious. But how can showing respect for others make YOUR life better?

Connect the opposites:

Better

Better

- learn from a leader
- better relationships
- earn more privileges
- avoid trouble
- make friends

- lose privileges
- lose friends
- get in trouble
- damage relationships
- learn less from a leader

Leaders

READ ME NEXT - DAY 1

Read 1 Samuel 24:10 first.

King Saul treated David badly. David did the opposite. What did he do?

Ask God to help you get in the habit of SHOW ing respect for your leaders.

Do Something
Circle at least 3 ways you will SHOW respect for _____ this week:
_____ a leader

Do something with someone, like your brother or sister, to SHOW them they're important to you.

Bless = to give something good
Blessed = to be glad because of something God has done

Today's Bible verses list several ways to SHOW respect for others. When you do, God says you'll be blessed as well as that other person.

Read 1 Peter 3:8-9 first.

READ ME NEXT - DAY 2

Jesus said it's better (more blessed) to give than to get, to do something for someone else than for them to do for you. Do something for someone this week, like a friend, that shows them respect. What would SHOW them they are important to you?

Read Acts 20:35 first.

READ ME LAST - DAY 3

What?

- hug, arm wrestle, etc.
- play a game or hang out
- give a gift
- act of service
